Dear Sirs,

TESTIMONIAL

Marcus, John and the team at Queen City Law have acted for Mondo Travel since our inception in April 2007.

By way of background Mondo is a leading New Zealand Travel Company. Our focus is on providing franchisees with a new and transparent model, offering profit share, improved remuneration and a real focus on the retailer and its customers.

We have developed a strong partnership with Queen City Law as our preferred legal suppliers from our inception.

Over the years the firm has provided a dynamic and cost effective legal service to our company, often providing creative legal solutions to complex legal issues.

Queen City Law's work has included

- Assisting us with complex negotiations and structuring requirements;
- Assisting us with the completion of complicated due diligence programmes;
- Drafting up complex commercial agreements on our behalf;
- Acting on the company's acquisitions and disposals of assorted businesses;
- Employment law issues;
- Leasing issues;
- A variety of other primarily commercial law issues.

We have thoroughly respected the service that Queen City Law has provided to us over the years.

As clients of Queen City Law, we have noted their commitment to a client focused, value added service by working in partnership with us. Queen City Law has supplied tailored and specialist legal advice, supported by co-operation, accessibility, quality and turn around.

In addition Queen City Law has taken the time to understand the peculiarities of our sphere of business and has been able to provide legal services and advice to us that are tailored to our own business practicalities.

We have been loyal clients of the firm now for the best part of a decade and have been thrilled to see the practice win the Boutique Law Firm of the Year Award for the last three years. Accordingly, we would highly recommend Queen City Law to any individual or business, and have in fact referred a number of clients to the firm.

Yours sincerely,
