Dear Sirs,

RE: PROFESSIONAL SERVICES PROVIDED BY QUEEN CITY LAW

Project Floors (NZ) Limited is a market leading supplier & distributor of a wide range of flooring products for use in both commercial and domestic applications, in New Zealand, Australia & Internationally

Marcus Beveridge & his team at Queen City Law have acted for Project Floors since 1997 and right through the new Era of Queen City Law. Over the years we have developed a strong working relationship with Queen City Law as our preferred legal suppliers and have been highly satisfied with the work they have carried out on our behalf, very successfully.

The firm has provided an extremely thorough and cost effective legal service to our company, as well as supplying valuable strategic advice on occasion, without losing their ability to provide the personal and friendly touch.

Project Floors (NZ) Limited has thoroughly respected the service that Queen City Law has provided to us over the years and will continue to work with the firm for many years into the future. With a diverse portfolio in Flooring distribution, Property, Family Trust & other legal matters, Queen City Law have covered every aspect of our business ventures to the highest degree.

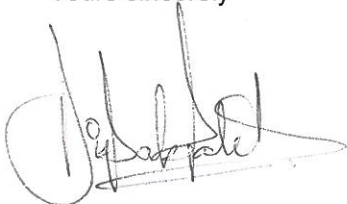

Not only do Queen City Law, have a total commitment to a client focused, value added service by working in partnership with us, but also are able to supply tailored and specialist legal advice, supported by co-operation, accessibility, quality and turn around.

In addition, Queen City Law has taken the time to make themselves familiar with our style of business and has been able to adapt that advice to us to fit our own business requirements.

They are also very well equipped to provide full structuring advice and are second to none in the property law sector.

We have been very satisfied clients of the Marcus Beveridge & the firm for over 13 years now. We are delighted with the success the firm has had at the New Zealand Law Awards over the past three years, especially in winning the Boutique Law Firm of the Year Award. We would have no hesitation in recommending Queen City Law to any one looking for quality legal services carried out in a thorough and effective manner.

Yours sincerely

DIPAK PATEL
